Youth Hub Find Your Future Session

Every Thursday at Skills Launchpad Plymouth (on the first floor of Barclays) Rhianne and Abi have a clear diary between 12noon and 2pm to chat to care leavers looking for support. During this session there is no pressure to sign up to anything, it's just a first conversation before deciding whether to move forward and develop a plan. You can come with a friend, your PA, or by yourself, but do try it.

Your Future

Your Future is a five-week programme designed specifically to support young people who either have an EHCP (Education Health Care Plan), SEND (Special Educational Needs and Disabilities) or other barriers to learning, to build their confidence and explore their aspirations towards employment, education or training.

This is a fantastic opportunity to develop a positive mindset and improve on interpersonal and thinking skills.

Aged 18 to 25-years-old?

The next programme starts on Monday 3 February 2025 and over three days a week for three weeks, offers coaching and mentoring that will help you to develop confidence, boost your employability skills and enhance social skills.

Those taking part will also have the chance to take part in a free residential stay in Bristol and take part in some great activities.

This programme is a chance to make new friends, increase your teamwork and independent living skills, and gain an understanding of local opportunities that may be right for you.

Register your interest now to find out about more - click here.

Explore Different Cultures with the Turing Scheme

Local training provider On Course South West has secured funding to carry out placements and projects abroad for eligible students aged 19+ between now and 31 August 2025. Trips away will include Italy, Iceland, Sweden and more with an aim to enrich learning taking place through On Course South West courses and improve participants personal and social skills, applying learning in a different cultural context.

Want to find out more and check eligibility details? Click here.

Are you a young person with an Education Health Care Plan (EHCP)? Have you considered a Supported Internship?

A supported internship offers 16 to 24-year-olds with an EHCP the opportunity to work towards an accredited qualification(s) and take part in a work placement opportunity with the support from an expert job coach. This study programme can last between six months to a year, depending on the individual's progress and future.

Here in Plymouth, work is being done to grow the number of Supported Internships, and there are existing programmes available focused on jobs within Plymouth City Council, City College Plymouth, and the sport and leisure industry, and hospitality with support through Discovery College, and plans underway to develop more opportunities within the health and care sector.

Right now, Discovery College has ten live Supported Internship vacancies. There are work placements with local employers available in both health in leisure (great if you like sport too) and hospitality and retail.

To find out more and arrange a conversation about opportunities, sign up as a member of Skills Launchpad Plymouth here.

If you have special educational needs or disabilities, you may also be interested in the Monday sessions at Poole Farm.

What's on at Poole Farm?

SEND support

Each week, between 1pm and 3pm, neurodiverse young people are invited to come and learn new skills, challenge themselves and make new friends. It can also help you to gain experience that will empower you to go out into the world of employment and apply knowledge gained from the farm.

On Mondays those attending can learn all about animal husbandry, DIY, gardening and so much more –as well as working towards a digital badge which can be used to enhance your CV.

If you are interested in joining this group, please email SENDyouthwork@plymouth.gov.uk for more info and for a request for service form – or contact the Youth Hub team and they can support you with this.

SEEDS (Send Exploring and Enhancing Digital Skills)

Did you know that every Wednesday at Efford library between 2pm and 4pm there is a free group that offers sessions around digital and photography skills sessions for those with SEND or those looking to develop their confidence? You don't need to have a formal ECHP to attend, but you do need to be currently seeking opportunities for training or employment and aged 16 to 24-years-old.

Want to find out more? Contact Rachel at sendyouthwork@plymouth.gov.uk

Volunteer

Volunteering is a fantastic way to test out different jobs to find out what you prefer, as well as helping you to gain experience and develop soft skills that are useful in all careers. You may also choose to volunteer to give back and share your skills and experience with others.

Plymouth has lots of great volunteering opportunities with organisations including Citizens Advice Plymouth, Shekinah, University Hospitals Plymouth NHS Trust / NHS Cadets, St John's Ambulance, Age UK Plymouth, Elder Tree Befriending, Trevi, Plymouth City Council, The Box, Barnardo's, Devon Mind, The Zone, Devon Wildlife Trust, Gables, Devon and Cornwall Police, Ocean Discovery Rangers, National Marine Aquarium, Clean Our Patch, Nature Plymouth, and Moor Trees.

You can also explore vacancies broadly by visiting Volunteering | PLYMOUTH.GOV.UK or <https://govolunteering.co.uk/>

Opportunities vary from helping people, animals, and children, to admin, retail, and customer Service. There are also environmental opportunities outdoors, or in nature/gardening, right through to media, history, and fundraising. What a brilliant way to develop your skills and meet new people?!

For anyone aged 18+, Plymouth City Council has a big push on Good Neighbour Support Volunteers right now - details here.

If you are aged 19+, as part of Plymouth's Volunteering Passport, which is recognised by many organisations hosting volunteers across the city, you can also access On Course South West's last Friday of every month day of emerging course delivery. This helps volunteers achieve a digital badge acknowledging training that supports their volunteering. If you'd like to find out more, click here.

Apply for apprenticeships

Apprenticeships are real jobs with training. They start all year round and are not just for school leavers!

Apprenticeships are a great way to earn while you learn, gain a nationally recognised qualification, and study from Level 2 right up to degree-level, depending on the role you are working towards. If you are worried about the financial side of an apprenticeship salary, you could be entitled to claim universal credit to top you up, so don't rule it out as a possibility.

In the latest edition of Plymouth's exclusive apprenticeship bulletin, there are hundreds of apprenticeship vacancies. Find out more here

Apply for jobs

There are many reasons why you might be looking for a new job, but the great news is that there are thousands of jobs available, right now, in Plymouth.

For advice on where to apply and things to consider, click here

Explore self-employment

Have you always dreamt of starting your own business? It can be both an exciting adventure and daunting, especially if you have additional barriers to overcome, such as disability or being long-term unemployed.

We have added lots of information and links to support you in setting up your own business in our Resource Bank here and we also suggest checking out the upcoming courses with the National Careers Service, On Course South West, the King's Trust and City College Plymouth that can help you with starting your own business.

Brush up on your English and Maths

You may be bored of being asked whether you have your English and maths GCSEs, or a functional skill in numeracy and literacy, but the fact is, these skills matter and can really help you to get better jobs and earn more money in the long run. Here in Plymouth, there are several training providers who can help. Many build it into a full-time study programme or help you do it alongside an apprenticeship or traineeship, but you can also do your English and/or maths as a standalone course.

If it is maths, you need help with, you may have heard of the Multiply project. Across Plymouth through this funding, providers such as The Focus Training Group, Real Ideas, and On Course South West and others are delivering practical maths courses to make maths more fun. Argyle Community Trust is offering a great programme for parents based in Ivybridge including an hour of learning through play for the little ones whilst parents learn.

If you are aged 19+ and already enrolled on a maths course but struggling with a specific part of the course, you can drop into On Course South West at Hyde Park House on Mutley Plain for Maths Monday to discuss any skills support you need help with.

Get into training or education

It's never too late to learn new skills. Whether you didn't quite get your C/4 grades in your English and/or maths at school, or if you want to take your existing qualifications to the next level, Plymouth has lots of providers offering education - and the courses are quite often free.

Courses range from business and coding to hair and beauty, animal care, sport and fitness, military preparation, cooking, and more. Many can even help you to access university-level study.

You may also like to read the 2023-24 edition of 'Which Way? Your Way!' which is focused on helping young people better understand their options for education and training post-16 – check it out here.

Skills Bootcamps

If you are aged 19+ you may also be interested in exploring Skills Bootcamps!

Skills Bootcamps are intensive skills accelerator courses that take place over six to ten weeks and enable participants to build up specific sector skills and fast-track to an interview with a local employer. They are currently delivered locally by City College Plymouth, On Course South West, BIT Training and Devon County Council. Or if you are looking to engage online, The Skills Network offers opportunities.

Skills Bootcamps cover specialisms including cyber security, project management, digital marketing, early years education, welding, green skills and retrofit, live events and more. Don't miss out.

Training delivered online

A few of our partners also offer free online courses, so why not gain a new qualification or skill from the comfort of your own home?
